STORMING OF FORT McALLISTER BY HAZEN'S COMMAND.

180th OHIO VOLUNTEER INFANTRY.

THIS was one of a series of one-year regiments, recruited in the fall of 1864. It was organized October 9, 1864, and left Camp Chase for Nashville, Tennessee, on the 15th. From Nashville it was ordered to Decherd, Tennessee, under command of Lieutenant-Colonel Hiram McKay, Colonel Willard Warner being with General Sherman, in Georgia. Colonel Warner joined the regiment October 28th.

The regiment remained with its right wing at Decherd and its left wing at Elk River Bridge, under Major Wood, and was used as guard to the Nashville and Chattanooga Railroad for the most part of three months. It formed a part of Kryznowski's Railroad Brigade. This service was very arduous, rendered more so from the fact that the regiment was cut off from all communication with the main army, and exposed to attack from General Hood's Rebel forces, then making their way toward Nashville.

On January 6, 1865, the regiment went by rail to Nashville, and after remaining there a few days, was ordered to guard a train of wagons bound for Eastport, Mississippi. It did not, however, go beyond Columbia. It was there met by an order to return to Nashville. From there it was ordered to Washington City via Louisville and Cincinnati.

The regiment reached Washington January 31, 1865, and was placed in Camp Stoneman, near that city. After remaining some three weeks in camp, during the most severe weather, the regiment was attached to the Twenty-Third Army Corps, then under orders for Fort Fisher. On reaching the mouth of Cape Fear River, the fall of Fort Fisher was announced, rendering their services unnecessary in that quarter.

The regiment was then taken to Newbern, where it was joined to a force under General J. D. Cox, to open railway communication with Goldsboro' and General Sherman's army. At Kingston, North Carolina, the division to which the regiment was attached was engaged on the 8th, 9th, and 10th of March, with the Rebel forces under Generals Bragg and Hoke, resulting in the discomfiture of the enemy, and the capture of Kingston. Lieutenant-Colonel Hiram McKay, of the regiment, was killed, and Lieutenant Thomas C. Hurst severely wounded. Ten men were killed and thirty wounded.

From Kingston the regiment marched toward Goldsboro', rebuilding the railroad as it progressed, reaching Goldsboro' March 21st. It remained there until April 9, and then marched with Sherman's army to Raleigh, North Carolina, where it performed garrison-duty—Colonel Warner being Provost-Marshal—till the surrender of General Jos Johnston. Thence it moved to Greensboro', and from there to Charlotte, where it remained as the city garrison—Colonel Warner being Post Commandant—until July 12, 1865. It was then sent home to Columbus for muster-out, which event occurred July 25, 1865.

Abraham Lincoln's Gettysburg Address

FOUR score and seven years ago our fathers brought forth on this continent, a new nation, conceived in liberty, and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal.

Now we are engaged in a great civil war, testing whether that nation, or any nation so conceived and so dedicated, can long endure. We are met on a great battlefield of that war. We have come to dedicate a portion of that field, as a final resting place for those who here gave their lives that that nation might live. It is altogether fitting and proper that we should do this

But, in a larger sense, we can not dedicate - we can not consecrate - we can not hallow - this ground. The brave men, living and dead, who struggled here have consecrated it, far above our poor power to add or detract. The world will little note, nor long remember what we say here, but it can never forget what they did here. It is for us the living, rather, to be dedicated here to the unfinished work which they who fought here have thus far so nobly advanced. It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us - that from these honored dead we take increased devotion to that cause for which they gave the last full measure of devotion - that we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain - that this nation, under GOD shall have a new birth of freedom - and that government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth.

Mary Ann Washnick

FICKLE

Mary A. Washnick, was born in Richland Co., O., April 18, 1837. With her parents she came to Williams Co., O., when but a girl. She was united in marriage with George S. Fickle, October 28, 1858. To them were born eleven children, four girls and seven boys. Two of whom with her husband preceded her in death. About forty-eight years ago they settled on the farm two miles south of Farmer Center. The country new, bravely did she share in the ardous work of the making of a home and caring with untiring love and zeal for her family. With hope and courage she thus shared the privations of pioneer life.

In her girlhood life she became identified with the German Reformed church. Her father being a minister of that denomination. When a United Brethren Society was formed at Dry Creek about thirty-five years ago she placed her membership with that class. We are assured that all who knew her in every day life will bear testimony to her Christian character and devoted to the Master and the church.

She was also a charter member of Lew Bowker, 182, W. R. C. Naturally reserved yet always ready to assist neighbor or stranger if opportunity presented. She departed this life Dec. 31, 1920, aged 83 years, eight months and thirteen days. She is survived by nine children, two brothers, two sisters, 29 grand children, 10 great grand children with many friends will greatly miss her.

after Ila (Fickle) died

27 Nov: 1977

Dear Daisy,

It was quite a shock yesterday when Mary & Al arrived and told me about Ila. My sincere sympathy to you as I know how much you're going to miss her. After I got back last summer I thought many times how foolish I was not to have called before I spent the day in Hicksville. I had brought many pictures along that I thought she might be able to help with names. Even tho I'm sure I had been told who they were, we didn't write names on them. I had one I thought might be our great grandfather and would surely have liked to know.

I have written down the information and hope it will be helpful. With a little more time, I could probably do a little more but thought you would probably rather have this immediately.

Take care and may God bless. If there is anything further I can do let me know.

With love,
Rose

DEATHS

FICKLE

George S. Fickle was born in Williams county, Ohio, March 13, 1836, and departed this life in Quincy, Mich., October 8, 1913, aged 77 years, 6 months and 25 days. He was united in marriage with Mary A. Washnick October 28, 1857. To them were born eleven children, seven sons and four daughters. One son preceded him to the spirit world. The children who survive him are Joseph of Sturgis, Mich.; Ida, now Mrs. Lord of Farmer; Isaac of Quincy, Mich.; Cassie, now Mrs. Culler, of Farmer; Ella, now Mrs. Bays of Farmer; George of Portland, N. Y.; Roy and Clyde of Quincy, Mich.; Claud of Farmer; Attella, now Mrs. Hutchins of Bryan. After marriage they settled in Williams county, Ohio, where they resided until 1878 when they moved to Defiance county, Ohio, where they resided until about three years since. He was a soldier in the Union army during the Civil War, a member of Company F, 180th O. V. I., and was honorably discharged at the close of the war. In 1861 he united with the German Reformed at Pulaski, Ohio. Soon after the erection of the Dry Creek church, about 1890, he joined the United Brethren in Christ, and on moving to Farmer, by letter joined the M. E. church at Farmer Center. Brother Fickle was one of our noble citizens, industrious and upright, he commanded the respect and esteem of all who knew him. The wife has lost a devoted husband, the children an indulgent father and the community an an obliging neighbor. He leaves to mourn their loss, a devoted wife, ten children, one brother, three sisters, twenty-eight grand children, five great grandchildren, with other relatives and many friends. Funeral services occurred from the church at Farmer Center on Friday, conducted by Rev. J. W. Lilly. Interment at Farmer.

FICKLE

Mary A. Washnick, was born in Richland Co., O., April 18, 1837. With her parents she came to Williams Co., O., when but a girl. She was united in marriage with George S. Fickle, October 28, 1858. To them were born eleven children, four girls and seven boys. Two of whom with her husband preceded her in death. About forty-eight years ago they settled on the farm two miles south of Farmer Center. The country new, bravely did she share in the ardous work of the making of a home and caring with untiring love and zeal for her family. With hope and courage she thus shared the privations of pioneer life.

In her girlhood life she became identified with the German Reformed church. Her father being a minister of that denomination. When a United Brethren Society was formed at Dry Creek about thirty-five years ago she placed her membership with that class. We are assured that all who knew her in every day life will bear testimony to her Christian character and devoted to the Master and the church.

She was also a charter member of Lew Bowker, 182, W. R. C. Naturally reserved yet always ready to assist neighbor or stranger if opportunity presented. She departed this life Dec. 31, 1920, aged 83 years, eight months and thirteen days. She is survived by nine children, two brothers, two sisters, 29 grand children, 10 great grand children with many friends will greatly miss her.

Funeral services were held Monday at Farmer Center conducted by Rev. J. W. Lilly. Interment at Farmer.

Infantry Units: 180th Ohio Volunteer Infantry

Infantry units were recruited from all over the state. Those represented in detail here are the ones recruited primarily from northwest Ohio counties and those whose members wrote to local newspapers. More information will be added as it becomes available.

This Regiment was organized at Camp Chase, Ohio in September-October 1864 to serve one year. It left Camp Chase on October 15 for Nashville, TN and from Nashville was ordered to Decherd, TN. The Regiment remained at Decherd for the most part of three months, and was used as guard to the Nashville and Chattanooga Railroad. On January 6, 1865, the Regiment was ordered to Nashville and after remaining there a few days was ordered to guard a train of wagons bound for Eastport, MS. It went as far as Columbia, where it was met by an order to return to Nashville, and from there was ordered to Washington City. The Regiment reached Washington City January 31, 1865 and was placed in Camp Stoneman near that city. After remaining about three weeks in camp it was ordered to Fort Fisher. On reaching the mouth of Cape Fear River, the fall of Fort Fisher was announced, rendering its services unnecessary. The Regiment was then taken to Newbern, where it joined a force under General J. D. Cox, to open railway communication with Goldsboro and General Sherman's Army. At Kinston, NC on March 8-10, 1865, the Regiment had an engagement with the forces under Generals Bragg and Hoke, in which the Regiment lost a number of killed and wounded. From Kinston, the Regiment marched to Goldsboro, arriving there March 21, 1865. It remained here until April 9, and then marched with Sherman's Army to Raleigh, NC, where it performed garrison duty until the surrender of Johnston's Army. The Regiment then moved to Greensboro and from there to Charlotte, where it remained as the city garrison until July 12, 1865, when it was mustered out in accordance with orders from the War Department.

them are in feeble health and probably nine out of ten never leave their homes except when they are compelled to have their vouchers executed.

The abolition of the voucher system will also be a great relief to Court Attaches, both state and Federal, as a large percentage of pensioners apply to them because no charge is made for the execution of the vouchers. In the local United States District Court from 2,000 to 3,000 vouchers have been executed annually. BRYAN DEMOCRAT Sept. 24, 1912.

UNION VETERANS WERE DEFEATED: As candidates for Congress last March--House has only one. According to an item in the Toledo Times, which as been copied generally in this corner of the state, Gen. I.R. Sherwood is the only veteran of the Union army who will act as a member of the House of Representatives in Washington, in the sixty-third congress soon to assemble. There will be six members who served in the Confederate armies and but one in the Union armies. What a change a few years has wrought. Every Union soldier who was a candidate last fall was defeated because he was on the republican ticket and the combination against that ticket was too strong all over the country for it to win. BRYAN PRESS Dec. 26, 1912.

G.A.R. VETERANS MEET NEXT MONTH-- Thinned out ranks will reunite once more at Washington C.H. Many veterans of the Civil War and their friends living in this county are interested in the approaching G.A.R. State Encampment. It will be held in Washington C.H., Fayette county, Ohio, June 17,18,19, and 20, 1913, where the State Encampment was so royally entertained years ago.

The general committee of arrangements and the various local committees are making elaborate preparations to entertain the visiting thousands in a way befitting the occasion. Many distinguished orators will deliver addresses. There will be gorgeous parades of various kinds, and the occasion promises to be one long to be remembered. The four railroads reaching Washington C.H., which branch out in eight diffferent directions, are arranging to handle the big crowds. As the Civil War veterans of Ohio are rapidly passing away, the coming Encampment will doubtless be the last of the really large State Grand Army gatherings. BRYAN PRESS May 8, 1913.

WILL VISIT GETTYSBURG: Clinton Paine on Saturday received from the adjutant general's department an order for railway transportation and the credentials for the free trip to attend the union and confederate reunion to be held at Gettysburg, Pa., June 30 to July 4. Ohio veterans eligible to attend the reunion number 750. Mr. Paine is the only veteran now a resident of Bryan who served in an Ohio company at the battle of Gettysburg. Four special trains will carry the Ohio veterans to the scene of the historic battle. The soldiers will congregate at Cleveland, Toledo, Columbus and Cincinnati. BRYAN DEMOCRAT June 24, 1913.

GUARDED LINCOLN'S BODY IN 3 STATES: Edgerton Veteran had Post of Honor--As told in Detroit Newspaper.

John Sleesman, of Edgerton, O., formerly a member of Co. F. 111th O.V.I., is probably the only man at the encampment who saw weeping thousands view the body of Lincoln in three states, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois. Mr. Sleesman was on of the 100 soldiers who acted as a special guard over the body of the slain president.

"The president's body lay in state 12 hours in each place," said Mr. Sleesman. "The guards kept the crowds of mourners moving and 100 a minute passed by. That made 72,000 in each city. The lines at the entrance extended back a mile, with guards all along."

Mr. Sleesman, who will be 71 years old next March, alleges that he is the best preserved veteran in northwestern Ohio. He was not wounded in the war and was discharged in excellent health, which still continues. DETROIT NEWS. BRYAN PRESS Sept. 24, 1914.

CONFEDERATE SPEAKER HERE: On Friday evening, after the election, there will be given in Bryan, a talk by an ex-confederate soldier, under the auspices of Evans Post G.A.R. We have all heard much of the Federal side, this will be an opportunity to round out our knowledge by hearing something of the Confederate side. Don't miss it. C.A. Boucher, Post Adj., S.W. Kosier, Post Com. BRYAN PRESS Oct. 29, 1914.

LEW BOWKER POST HAS INSTALLATION. Farmer G.A.R. and W.R.C. have enjoyable social and business meeting. By special invitation of Past Commander C.M. Rogers of Lew Bowker Post No. 725, G.A.R. and Mrs. Rogers for the Women's Relief Corps a very enjoyable time was had at their beautiful country home three miles southeast of Farmer. And such music, why it could not have been improved upon unless Abe Mavis and Walt Tomlinson who were bunk-mates for three years had sung a duet.

Owing to the inclemency of the weather there was not a very large turnout of the old soldiers, but enough so that the following officers were installed: Post Commander, C.M. Rogers; Sr. Vice, A.J. Mavis; Jr. Vice, Alex McConkey; Adj., B.F. Lord; Quartermaster, Wm. Yeagley; Surgeon and O. of G., Wm. Lord; Chaplain, W.S. Headley; Patriotic Instructor, W.S. Tomlinson.

The following ladies of W.R.C. were present and transacted their regular routine of business. Mrs. C.M. Rogers, George Fickle, Alex McConkey, Oney Allen, Vern Cunningham, Arthur Stone, Albert Shank, Eugene Conkey and Mrs. W.S. Tomlinson. It was voted to hold the next joint meeting with Mrs. Tomlinson. BRYAN PRESS Feb. 4, 1915.

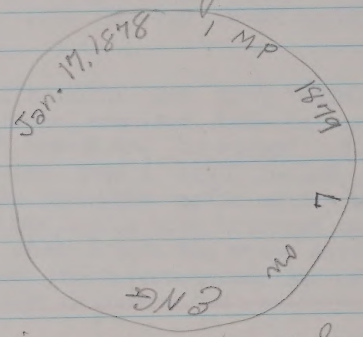
DEATH THINNING RANKS: G.M. Saltzgaber, United States commissioner of pensions, has issued a report which shows how death is thinning the ranks of the soldiers of the Civil War, who were enlisted from Ohio. On July 1, this year, there were 67,123 Ohio pensioners on the rolls, as against 70,763 on July 1, 1915, a falling off of 3,645. The amount paid to the Ohio pensioners during the last fiscal year, ending June 30, was $15,062,401.oo, as against $15,666,667.00 the previous year. BRYAN DEMOCRAT Oct. 03, 1916.

PAY RESPECTS TO THE BOYS OF '61-- Bryan Observes Memorial Day Under Ideal Conditions. Memorial services were held under ideal weather conditions

Talva Fickle Brown, Hicksville, O. has Grandfather George L Fickle's watch fob.

It appears to have been made from the heads of gun shells. Inscribed on it is:

Boyds Battery Jan 18, 1878



This is as near as I could read it when Talva showed it to me in 1978 when Daisy & I visited Talva & Dale.

George S. FICKLE was born Mar. 18, 1836 in Williams Co. Ohio.

He married Mary Ann WASNICH on the 28th of Oct. 1858 in her home in Pulaski, Williams Co. Ohio. They were married by Rev. Butts.

George went into Military Service by enrolling on the 27th day of Sept. 1864 to serve one year. He was a Pvt. in the Company of Capt. Andrew Smith, Co. G 180 Regt. of Ohio Infantry Volunteers. He was discharged on the 12th of July 1865 at Charlotte, N.Car. by SOR No. 113, Dept. N.C. He was 28 yrs. old was 5feet ten inches, fair complexion, blue eyes, grey hair,and his occupation was a farmer. His discharge was signed by:
Elisha P. Allen, 1st Lt.
Commanding the Company

They had eleven children as appear on the family sheet.

They lived most of their married life two miles south of Farmer on a farm. The last place they lived was in Farmer in what I know as the Kiteridge House. This is the last house on the right side of the road going north toward Bryan. Cousin Lelah Culler stayed with them one year to go to Farmer High School. It was probably her Freshman year as the next her brother LaVon drove them to school in the horse and buggy which the stabled in what I know is the Rich Yeagly barn, the last property before the school house coming from Farmer.

Grandfather George died in Alagansee, Branch Co. Mich. while visiting his son. This was probably Uncle Ike. He died on the 8th day of Oct. 1913. He was brought back to Farmer for services from the Farmer Union Church and was buried in the Farmer Cemetery.

George S. PICKLE was born Mar. 18, 1836 in Williams Co. Ohio.

THE HOUSEKEEPER.

"THE FADED COAT OF BLUE."

SELECTED BY IDA BURKHARDT AND "S. M. L."

My brave lad sleeps, in his faded coat of blue,
In his lonely grave unknown lies the heart that beat so true;
He sank faint and hungry among the famished brave,
And he's sleeping sad and lonely within his nameless grave.

CHORUS.

No more the bugle calls the weary one,
Rest, noble spirit, in thy grave unknown;
I shall find you and know you among the good and true,
When a robe of white is given for the faded coat of blue.

He cried, "dear comrade, you cannot take me home,
But you'll mark my grave for mother, she'll find it when she comes.
I fear she will not know me among the good and true,
When a robe of white is given for that faded coat of blue."

He cried, "give me water and just a little crumb,
And my mother she will bless you through all the years to come!
O tell my sweet sister, so gentle and so true,
That I'll meet her up in heaven, in my faded coat of blue."

No dear one was by him to close his sweet blue eyes,
And no gentle one was by him to give him sweet replies;
No stone marks the grave o'er my lad so brave and true,
In his silent grave he sleeps, in his faded coat of blue.

GREEN GRAPE JELLY.

In northern Ohio the housewife's prospect for the coming year's supply of fruit is very unfavorable. There are no apples, peaches are exceptional, even the leaves of apple and peach trees have blighted and fallen. The raspberry crop has been a light one, and the blackberry fruitage may fail from prolonged dry weather. This scarcity of fruit suggested that green grapes might be utilized, and converted into jelly.

"THE FADED COAT OF BLUE."

SELECTED BY IDA BURKHARDT AND "S. M. L."

My brave lad sleeps, in his faded coat of blue,
In his lonely grave unknown lies the heart that beat so true;
He sank faint and hungry among the famished brave,
And he's sleeping sad and lonely within his nameless grave.

CHORUS.

No more the bugle calls the weary one,
Rest, noble spirit, in thy grave unknown;
I shall find you and know you among the good and true,
When a robe of white is given for the faded coat of blue.

He cried, "dear comrade, you cannot take me home,
But you'll mark my grave for mother, she'll find it when she comes.
I fear she will not know me among the good and true,
When a robe of white is given for that faded coat of blue."

He cried, "give me water and just a little crumb,
And my mother she will bless you through all the years to come!
O tell my sweet sister, so gentle and so true,
That I'll meet her up in heaven, in my faded coat of blue."

No dear one was by him to close his sweet blue eyes,
And no gentle one was by him to give him sweet replies;
No stone marks the grave o'er my lad so brave and true,
In his silent grave he sleeps, in his faded coat of blue.

GREEN GRAPE JELLY.

In northern Ohio the housewife's prospect for the coming year's supply of fruit is very unfavorable. There are no apples, peaches are exceptional, even the leaves of apple and peach trees have blighted and fallen. The raspberry crop has been a light one, and the blackberry fruitage may fail from prolonged dry weather. This scarcity of fruit suggested that green grapes might be utilized, and converted into jelly.

Van Wert's line was strong on defense and the backfield was fast and shifty. Bryan's backfield was unable to gain through the line and Van Wert's backfield was fast and shifty. Bryan's backfield was unable to gain through the line and Van Wert's backfield was fast and shifty.

G. O. P. LOSES ALL PRESIDING JUDGES

Democrats Entitled to 24 of Principal Election Officials, Progressives Get Three

Probably for the first time in the history of the Republican party in Williams county, no member of the party will be entitled to serve as presiding judges in any precinct at the election November 4. At the coming election twenty-four of the presiding judges will be Democrats and three will be Progressives.

The appointments of the presiding judges in each election precinct made by the board of deputy state supervisors of election is based upon the vote for governor at the last general election. Last November Governor Cox received the largest number of votes in 24 of the 27 precincts of the county and in these 24 precincts the presiding judges both this year and next year will be a Democrat. In three precincts, West Unity, Pioneer and Northwest township, Dr. L. Garford, the Progressive candidate for governor, received the highest vote, and members of the Progressive party will serve as presiding judges.

The accompanying illustration shows the emblem recently adopted by the Progressive party in Ohio, the head of a Bull Moose. Voters in Bryan and Montpelier will see this new party emblem on the regular ballots for the first time at the November election. Although the Progressive party has made no nominations for the municipal offices to be filled at the coming election it is necessary to print a blank ticket on the regular ballot, together with the Democratic and Republican tickets.

SUNDAY SCHOOL HELD INTERESTING

The annual Williams County Sunday School convention was held in the Methodist church at Edon last Tuesday and Wednesday. The convention opened with a short session during the forenoon of the first day. Places of entertainment was assigned to those who had come from out of town. The second session opened with a spirit for business.

Mrs. E. E. Dean and Mrs. S. L. Dye of Toledo gave instructions for elementary work; Mrs. Dean teaching the lesson story while Mrs. Dye illustrated the same. This was arranged and delivered in a very effective way; leaving impressions on the adult mind as well as those of the child that were more vivid than can be had by the printed lesson story read or told of telling and illustrating without illustrations. Then Mrs. Dean demonstrated the fact that we can not interest as they should, the child's mind unless a desire is shown for the little ones under the teacher's care, and an earnest, desire to impart gospel truths. They put forth every effort to make the work felt not only by primary teachers but by all other [illegible] school work. At the close of the last session a very interesting address was given after the illustrated method, in the interest of missionary work.

State secretary, C. W. Saint, gave several interesting and impressive addresses bearing on the great needs of a more careful study by those who claim to be interested in the Sunday school cause. One address was confined to the "Country Church Problem," in which she set forth many ways in which this has been neglected, and what could be accomplished for the spiritual and social conditions of a community if more care and attention [illegible]

The subject of "Organized Adult Class Work was handled by Prof. W. L. Fulton of Bryan, county superintendent of adult work. Not only did Mr. Fulton mention many things that can be accomplished with the proper effort back of the move, but impressed on those present its necessity.

A very interesting address was delivered by Rev. Myers of Bryan. The leading thought presented in this address pointed to the first essential in the makeup of a good Sunday school worker, which is a pure devotion to God a strong desire to do what is possible in bearing the message to others.

A well arranged paper was read by Mrs. Reuman-of Bryan, which called attention to many of the vital facts to be observed by teachers and workers. The line of thought was well selected and enjoyed by those who heard it.

Rev. J. J. Richards of West Unity delivered an address that embodied many things worth listening to. Much better to be lived. The chain of thought was along the line of training for the teaching of the word. He clearly mentioned the first and greatest need to be thorough conversion and a consecrated life. On this foundation should be built the trained teacher.

A sunrise prayer meeting was held on the morning of the fifteenth conducted by Rev. F. Cummings of Stryker. It was an hour of spiritual profit to all who were present.

The Edon high school orchestra furnished music for both evening sessions. The orchestra is to be commended for the services rendered; also for the preparation and manner of delivery.

The Sunday schools of Edon are to be praised and thanked for the interest taken in these sessions. A thorough preparation was made for a good start in the week also for [illegible]
